COTTON MARKET.

Quotations furnished by W. B. Hibbs & Co., members of the New York Cotton Exchange, Hibbs Building, 725 Fifteenth street northwest.

New York, Feb. L.—Cotton was irregular and weak in the early trading, opening 5a7 points down and selling 7a9 points lower. This was due to poor cables and heavy selling in this market by New Orleans houses. Buils took advantage of the break to but heavily on a scale-down. This stradical the Orleans houses, Bulls took advantage of the break to buy heavily on a scale-down. This steadied the market by noon, and in the later trading there was a sharp rise to the close, when prices were 7a20 points above the opening.

Receipts at the ports were 32,000 bales, against 48,176 bales last week and 49,235 bales last year. For the week, 260,000 bales, against 277,068 bales last week and 217,036 last year. Receipts at New Orleans were 5,325 bales, against 16,251 bales last year, and at Houston, 19,817 bales, against 6,902 bales last year.
